THE WEST ABLD EVERY INVICORATING CORDIAL

TOR GENITAL DEBILITY, IMPOTENCY, INCONTIT NENCE, OR NOCTURNAL EMISSIONS, &c.—The astonishing success which has attended this invaluable medicine, for Loss of Muscular Energy, Physical Lastitus, and General Prestration, or any of the consequences of youthful indiscretion, or indulgence of the passion in riper years, renders it the most valuable preparation ever discovered. In fact, as a remedy for the above complaints, it stands univalled and slone. There is no other reliable remedy, or dily thin has suftentively received the sanction of the Medical Faculty. The WONDERFUL VEGETABLE PRODUCTION of which this medicine is composed has been tested, and its virtuos proclaimed, by the highest names of the faculty of London, Paris, and the chief cities of Europe, as well as by eminent Physicians in this country. It is the only infallible remedy for NERVOUS, HEAD, and MIND COMPLAINTS—the mental physic so long sought for and never before found—the only agent that can administer to MIND DIBEASES. It will remove all nervous affections, DEPPRESSION, EXCITEMENT, incapacity to study or business, loss of MEMORY, CONFUSION, thoughts of self-destruction, fear of insanity, &c., It will restore the appetite, renew the health of those who have destroyed it by Sensual Excesses or evil practices. It has been said by some that these disorders, emissions, &c., were incurable. This, however, is not the fact.

BR. MORSE'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL has cured, mental and bodily incapacity of the unfortunate sufferer, as the following testimony of the names received will conclusively show?

Dr. Woodward, of ——, Massachusetts Insane Hospital, writes of one of his patients being cured by using this Cordial thus: "It gives me pleasure to inform you that one of my patients, while in Bosten, procured some of your Cordial. He tells me that he has not had a single emission since he commenced taking it, while before he had two or three a week. When he applied to me," says Dr. W., "I thought it hardly possible for him ever to regain his full strength. I prescribed the tiantal medicine used in those cases in the hospital, but they had no effect. In the mean time he purchased some of your Cordial, which has effected a cure I am sure no other medicine would. I shall ever recommend it, whenever an opportunity occurs."

The nature of the maladies relieved by this Cordial are generally such as to leave the publication of certificates of cures out of the question. The proprietor could produce a host of the most conclusive testimony to show that the great reputation it enjoys was not accidentally obtained, but is ost of the most conclusive testimony to show that the great piptiation it enjoys was not accidentally obtained, but he emily based upon its positive and apparently miraculous rives. In all directions are to be found the happy parent the althy offsprings, who would not have been so but for its extraordinary preparation. And it is equally potent or many discases for which it is recommended.

THE MEDICAL JOURNALS
have not, in a single instance that has been authenticated, given their sanction fo any other preparation for the above complaints. It has, in many violent and desperate cases, effected radical cures, after patients had been abandoned, and their condition pronounced hopeless by medical practitioners of high professional character.

THE COMMON EXPRESSION or those who have used this Extract is: "I had heard your Cordial highly spoken of, but was one of the incredulous in regard to its merits, having tried various medicines sold for the same purpose, different Sarsaparillas, without deriving any benefit. I had almost given up all hope of obtaining relief, when I purchased some of your Cordial. I had no faith whatever of its benefiting me—but it has. I feel stronger, have had no emissions since, although it is not three weeks. I am satisfied that the half a dozen bottles I took will cure me."

Another says: "I had consulted several distinguished physicians. Some said I could not be cured; others prescribed this thing and that; but I found no relief until I procured some of your Corelial. I must say it completely procured some of your Corman. I must say it completely cured me."

Another says: "I was surprised at the effect your Cordial had. Why had I not heard of it before? It would have saved me so much expense, besides years of mental and bodily suffering."

CAUTION.—Ask for Dr. Morze's Cordial, and take no other, as there are worthless imitations which its unrivalled excellence, fame, and popularity have brought into the market. It will not hurt the most delicate female, but degood. Beware of all other Cordials, &c., and try only this.

It is put up in pint bottles, with the words Dr. MORRE'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL blown on the glass. Price $3 per bottle; two bottles, $5; six bottles, $12; and $24 per dozen.

DR. JOHNSTÖN,

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, Graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges of the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known. Many troubled with ringing in the ears and head when saleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, and bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOVICE

distely.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by private and improper indulgences, that secret and solidary habit, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business er society.

These are some of the sad and melanoholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c., &c.

Mentally.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion of Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solituse, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

NERVOUS DEBILITY.

Weakness of the system, Nervous Bebility and premature decay generally arise from the destructive habit of youth, that solitary practice se fatal to the healthful existence of man, and it is the young who are most apt to become its Victims, from an ignorance of the dangers to which they subject themselves. Parents and Guardians are often misled with respect to the cause or source of disease in their sons and wards. Alas! how often do they ascribe to other causes the wasting of the frame, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, derangement of the Nervous System, Cough, and Symptoms of Consumption; also those serious Mental effects, such as loss of Menory, Depression of Spirits, or peculiar fits of Melancholy, when the truth is, they have been caused by indulging in Pernicious but alluring practices, destructive to both Body and Mind. Thus are swept from existence thousands who might have been of use to Society.

DR. JOHNSTON'S INVIGINATING REMEDY FOR OR.

Society. DR. JOHNSTON'S INVIGORATING REMEDY FOR OB-GANIC WEAKNESS. GANIO WEAKNESS.

This grand and important Remedy has restored strength and vigor to thousands of the most debilitated individuals, many who had lost all hopes, and been abandoned to die. By its complete invigoration of the Nervous System, the whole faculties become restored to their proper power and functions, and the fallen fabric of life is raised up to beauty, consistency and duration, upon the ruins of an emaciated and premature decline, to sound and pristine health. Oh, how happy have hundreds of misguided youths been made, who have been suddenly restored to health from the devastations of those terrific malsides which result from indiscretion! Such persons, before contemplating MARRIAGE, should reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without this, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prospect hearly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own. Let no false delicacy prevent you, but apply immediately.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. Johnston may religiously confide in his honor as a Gentleman, and

It is this motive alone that induces Dr. J. to advertise, for he alone can cure you. MESSES. EDITORS: In the Baltimore papers of Saturday last, I notice an advertisement stating of his diplomacy and of the policy of the adminthat twenty young ladies are wanted at the Holliday street Theatre, for the Ballet. Now, I view such advertisements as very obnoxious to any community-for whatever is considered disrept table and beneath the respectability of the merchant's daughter, is and ought to be so considered by the humble daughter of indigence, whose only poast is, as pure and proud a fame as that of the fairest lady who moves in the most refined so-

Is there an honest father, who would permit his daughter to appear on the stage of a Theatre, amongst a motley group of questionable characters, in any capacity, much less that of a Ballet Is there a lady so devoid of decency, who would expose her person in so unchaste and vulgar a position, for any price, much less the pittance of 25 or 50 cents a night? No.

But, we know that necessity is sometimes the master of will; and perhaps it is meant for the virtuous daughter of the poor widowed seamstress, who toil from morning till night to gain a scanty sustenance. But, lowly daughter of the self within the reach of the serpent's slimy coilits fangs may sting you.

If such advertisement is not intended for, nor expected to be responded to by, respectable ladies, what must we think of that father, that mother encourage by their presence at a Theatre, and be entertained by, a Ballet tronpe composed of women devoid of shame and respect.

WILLIAM T. EVANS.

The Father of William A. Graham.

B. J. Lossing, in his "Field Book of the Revolution," gives the following notice of the Whig candidate's father. Mr. Lossing, be it remembered, is a political opponent.

Captain Joseph Graham was an excellent specimen of the young men of Carolina who flocked to the army fighting for independence. He was born in Pennsylvania, on the 18th of October, 1759, and at the age of seven years accompanied his widowed mother to North Carolina. He was advected at Ocean's Navayor in Charlette and educated at Queen's Museum, in Charlotte, and was a spectator at the famous Convention held there in May, 1775. In May, 1778, at the age of nineteen, young Graham enlisted in the fourth regiment of North Carolina regular troops, under Colonel Archibald Lyle. Marching northward, his commander received instructions to return to

A fever prostrated him, and he returned home. While plodding in the field, he heard of the fall of Charleston, and defeat of Buford at the Wax-haw, and, like Cincinnatus, he left the furrow to engage in public duties. He was appointed adjutant of the Mecklenburg regiment. He fought the enemy with Major Davie, at Charlotte, in the enemy with Major Davie, at Charlotte, in the they felt; and large audiences of ladies and genautumn of 1780. In that engagement, he was them evinced the high appreciation on the part utant of the Mecklenburg regiment. He fought cut down and severely wounded by a British of our fellow-citizens generally of this noble endragoon. He received six sabre and three bullet wounds. These confined him in the hospital for two months. When recovered, he raised a company of mounted riflemen, and with his fifty men disputed the passage of the British army at Cowan's Ford. With his company, and some troops from Rowan, he surprised and captured a British guard at Hart's Mill, only a mile and a half from headquarters at Hillsborough, and the He was engaged in active service all that summer, and in September was appointed a major, and with a pretty strong force proceeded towards Wilmington to rescue Governor Burke, who had been abducted from Hillsborough, by Fanning, a noted Tory, and his associates; south of Fayette-ville he encountered a band of Tories, and deand thirty-six; that of the Tories was six hundred. He was engaged in two or three military enterprises soon afterward, when the surrender of Lord Cornwallis caused a cessation of hostilities at the South. With this campaign, Major Graham's revolutionory services closed. In the course of four years, (at the end of which he was only twenty-three years of age,) he had commanded in fifteen engagements, and was greatly beloved by his companions.

Major Graham was elected the first sheriff of Mecklenburg, after the close of the war, and, in 1787, married a daughter of John Davidson, one of the members of the famous Mecklenburg Convention. By her he had twelve children, the youngest of whom, the Hon. William A. Graham, is now (1852) Secretary of the Navy of the United States. Soon after his marriage, he erected iron works, and settled in Lincoln county, eight nature. miles from Beattie's Ford, where he lived forty years, and died. In 1814, one thousand men were raised in North Carolina to assist the Tennessee and Georgia volunteers against the Creek. Indians. Graham was urgently solicited to take the command. He consented, and received the commission of major general. He arrived with his corps just as the Creeks had submitted to Generals Jackson, Coffee, and Carroll, after the battle at the Horse Shoe. For many years after that war, Gen. Graham was the senior officer of the fifth division of the State militia. Temperate in all things, he enjoyed remarkable health until about the time of his death, which occurred from apoplexy, on the 12th of November, 1836, at the from Beattic's Ford to Lincolnton.

A Loss Gained !

We see it stated that Dr. Milo, of Vevay, Ia., eloped the other day with the wife of Mr. Jacob Captain McKinnon, of the British navy, who C. Smith. The Doctor borrowed the buggy of has been some two years in this country, and Mr. Smith to go, as he said, to Rising Sun. Mr. who is now publishing some sketches about life S. kindly gave him the vehicle, and walked himcourt. On his return home, he found an affectionate letter from his wife, stating "that he had always treated her better than she deserved; she begged him to take care of little Ruth, and enough; but to borrow the husband's buggy to carry her off in is "adding insult to injury." in the United States at from a dollar and a half Mr. Smith has since heard no tidings of his friend, which was then fast filling with water.

Mr. Webster and Mr. Seward.

We see it stated in several of our exchanges that soon after the conclusion of his speech in defence of the course of Mr. Webster on the fishing question, Mr. Seward received a note from Mr. Webster, in acknowledgment of the defence istration, and containing also the warmest commendation of its success and effect, which, h says, he understands from all quarters, "was marked and impressive." Mr. Seward's course on this question, says the Newark Mercury, is worthy of note. A good many Senators, who are in the habit of calling him a dangerous demagogue, have made very inflammatory speeches on this fishing question, taking good care to put themselves on the "popular," or war side. Mr. Seward has taken the opposite course, advocated moderation, and defended the Executive, and especially the State Department, against those who would drive them into rash measures.

Henry Winter Davis, of Baltimore.

The Richmond Whig of Saturday says: "A very large and enthusiastic meeting of Whigs were addressed on Thursday evening, at the Afpoor and humble, though great as the greatest in the land—pause, and beware! Place not your-elector for the city of Baltimore. Highly as the expectations of all had been raised by the fame of this young and eloquent champion of Whig principles, they were more than realized in the triumphant manner in which he sustained himself. and her daughters, who pride themselves on their Mr. Davis's address was a closely-welded chain integrity, as models of good society, and yet can of reasoning upon the position of parties in the United States, tempered with the most timely touches of humor, and flashing with the happiest These remarks are intended for the benefit of conceits of fancy. It was, indeed, an intellec-Preston and Legare, and men of that stamp, harangued from the hustings. Mr. Davis's reing, and excited the liveliest dismay among the Locos, which they could but ill conceal."

OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS .- No. 11. BY S. S. RANDALL. Before entering upon the consideration of the general subject which has been proposed in this series of articles, I cannot deny myself the pleasure of briefly adverting to a circumstance inti-mately connected with its general bearing, and eminently auspicious to the future prospects of the public schools of Washington. I allude to the deep interest manifested in the success and prosperity of these institutions, and of the sys-tem of which they form a part, by the chief ex-ecutive officers of the city, by the clergy, and by our principal citizens.

The late Mayor, and his distinguished predecessors in office, as well as a large majority of the City Councils during their respective admin-istrations, are understood to have been devotedly his commander received instructions to return to Carolina, and Graham went on furlough. He was called into active service in the autumn of that year, and accompanied Gen. Rutherford to the banks of the Savannah, soon after the defeat of Gen. Ashe at Brier Creek. He was with Gen. Jincoln while manœuvering against Provost, and was in the severe battle at Sono, in June, 1779.

A fever prostrated him, and he returned home. cipation in the interesting exercises of these oc-casions, many members of the Common Council, including the presiding officers of both Boards, were in attendance; the clergy of the city were well represented; distinguished members of Con-

These are truly encouraging symptoms, and speak volumes in favor of the intelligence and public spirit of the city. Their effect upon the advancement and prosperity of the schools can scarcely be estimated too highly. They serve to stimulate the efforts both of teachers and pupils, and their influence will be widely and deeply felt. It is but too common in our larger cities liberally to encourage and patronize the higher and more select institutions of learning, and to neglect the primary and elementary schools. I have myself frequently witnessed with pain the vacant seats reserved for the magistracy and clergy at gatherings of this kind, in contrast with the crowded attendance of all classes upon the exhibitions of fashionable and "select" seminaries of learning; feated them. His force was only one hundred and, while I would by no means underrate the influence or value of these latter institutions, I can-not but regard the former as practically far more entitled to the earnest regards and attachment of the community. For it is here that the founda-tions of future usefulness and character are laid for nine-tenths of those who are hereafter to constitute the fabric of society. It is here that the children of the poor and the lowly must congregate to receive those first impressions and imbibe those elementary principles of knowledge, which are to enable them to surmount the disadvantages of their position, and to compete on equal terms with the most favored recipents of fortune. And it is here, on this broad and common platform, that all adventitious distinctions of rank or station should be merged in the noble ambition to cultivate and develop the intellectual and moral faculties of our common

The Lake Erie Disaster.

Accounts from Buffalo, dated Saturday, state that the greatest excitement prevails at Erie against the persons having charge of the steamer Atlantic. Captain Petty remains in a very dangerous condition. A coroner's inquest was held over the body of a little girl found floating near the wreck of the Atlantic. The first mate of the Ogdensburg, who was on watch at the time of the collision, was examined. He says the Ogdensburg took 200 passengers from the wreck and 100 from the water. Aaron Sutton, of New age of seventy-seven years. His honored remains York, had provided himself with two life-prelie in a secluded spot, near the great road leading servers, and, while fastening one on his wife, some ruffian snatched the other from him. Mr. S., however, got off safely with his wife and two children. A young woman jumped overboard during the excitement, and would have been lost but for the exertions of a man, supposed to be an immigrant, who sprang after her and managed to get her on board the boat again, whence self into Vevay for the purpose of presiding at a she was taken by the steamer Ogdensburg. The man, however, after rescuing the woman, sank exhausted, and was drowned. Three men were saved by throwing over a binnacle and clinging to it until they were picked up. They were comfairs of life in America, there should be one be as happy as he could." She took one of her pelled several times for their own preservation to children with her. To steal a man's wife is bad kick from them drowning men and women. Mr. L. D. Crippard, of Michigan, saved two woman by breaking through the deck into the state-room,

> A Good Suggestion .- It is proposed by a correspondent of the Providence Journal that the alcohol used for mechanical purposes should be "doctored" with tartar emetic, to prevent its use as an intoxicating beverage.

The Maine Law.

Three-fourths of all the Northern papers we receive denounce or ridicule this law; and yet it is sustained in Maine, and from day to day espoused and adopted elsewhere.

Unkind!

The New Orleans Delta notices the demise of the Southern Press, with its loss of forty thousand dollars, and says that the South does not thereby sustain any loss. Westward, Ho!

It is said that a thousand men are at work on the railroad from Steubenville to Newark, and the whole is to be completed by a year from next winter, by which the whole route from Steubenville to St. Louis will be finished. Another Slander Refuted.

The Norfolk Courier publishes the following: WASHINGTON, August 18, 1852. Sin: I had the honor to receive your note of the 16th instant, stating that at the head of a Democratic paper published at Elizabeth City, (N. C.) called the "Democratic Pioneer," is the following: "I WOULD SOONER CUT OFF MY RIGHT HAND THAN LEND IT TO THE SUPPORT OF SLAVERY." -Gen. Scott to Senator Wade.

All I can say of the above is (what I have frequently said of it since it has been floating about in the papers) that Gen. Scott never made such a declaration to me or in my hearing, nor did I ever say, or pretend that he ever did, and I believe it to have been fabricated with a view to prejudice the Southern people against the old General. And permit me to add that the morbid sensitiveness of the Southern mind on this subect rendered it peculiarly liable to such impositions, and Northern demagogues knowing this will not fail to take advantage of it.

Very respectfully, yours, B. F. WADE.

The Norfolk News, a Democratic paper, says:
"We have never placed any reliance on the truth of the report, and have not suffered the charge to appear in our columns, though we can readily imaging how it has been believed by
